In The Life Atlanta presents: Kick Off & Welcome Reception

Join us for a fabulous evening as ITLA welcomes translesbigay Brothers and Sisters from across the country and around the world. This kick off will be truly southern , like only we in the south can do it , from the food to the entertainment and some of the speakers. We are bringing together Afrikweer artist , activist and academicians with our allies in the political arena to continue ITLA's commitment to the work that must be done for our survival. The city of Atlanta will be presenting ITLA with a special proclamation this year and our very own Board of Directors Co-Chair , Malik Williams will be giving the vison for growth and introducing our keynote speaker . Queen , our Co-Chair of the Planning Committee will be our MC.

In The Life Atlanta presents: Cultural Arts Festival and Health Fair

The Cultural Arts Festival has come to be the centerpiece of Black Gay Pride celebration . ITLA feels that one of the ways we inspire one another is through our unique artistic abilities , and is proud to be in a city where there is no lack of talent or sharing of talent. The afternoon begins with work shops on a wide variety of subjects; There is a wymens opener that involves women that work in different areas in the community and all live right here in Atlanta , from activist to educators. The Georgia Equality Project will be giving an empowerment lunch on our political systems and how they work ,a group of lesbian and gay clergy will be the host of a homosexuality and the bible workshop where Dr. Slyvia Rhue will screen her award wining film ALL GODS CHILDREN. The Cultural Arts festival will showcase a puppeteer, and performance artists, as openers with poets, rappers, and vocalist , bringing us truth in word and song to close out the evening.
